End of Partnership

Political events moved swiftly in Victoria last week-end and culminated in a reorganization of the Cabinet but, apparently, not in the death of the Coalition Government which will carry on without benefit of the Conservative party which had been a member of the Coalition since it was first organized by Hon. John Hart.

The actual break-up of the Liberal-Conservative alliance came as no surprise; it had long been evident and, indeed, freely stated by Mr. Anscomb, that it was only a matter of time. It was the timing which caught everyone off base. It had been predicted in these columns a week before that the break would probably come after the end of the February session of the Legislature.

That it came before the session surprised everyone and most of all, probably, Mr. Anscomb himself. The succession of events indicate that Mr. Anscomb placed one straw too many on the hitherto willing back of Mr. Johnson and he refused to accept it. Mr. Anscomb has labelled the reason his resignation was asked as a "flimsy excuse," but his action which prompted Mr. Johnson to ask for his resignation was in itself quite sufficient. Moreover it was but the final of a long series of actions on Mr. Anscomb's part which had a disrupting effect upon affairs in Victoria. In a Coalition, as in anything else, there cannot be two bosses and when a subordinate partner endeavors to assume the rights and prerogatives of the senior party, something must happen. In Victoria it did happen on Thursday. When Mr. Anscomb was asked for his personal resignation the whole Conservative group resigned and so ended the Liberal-Conservative alliance.

The Liberals will attempt to carry on a government with the assistance of the three members of the Legislature who were elected as Coalitionists. The Cabinet remains "Coalitionist" because Hon. John Cates, Minister of Labor, is one of the three members elected as Coalitionists. However, in the eyes of most of the electors, it undoubtedly will be considered a Liberal government.

The end of the Liberal-Conservative alliance was received with mixed feelings. For ten years good government had been provided this province and the province had advanced economically beyond the wildest forecasts of a decade ago. Much sound legislation has been put on the books, although, as do all governments, one or two blunders have been made. But, by and large, the affairs of this province have been in good hands during the past decade.

On the other hand, the ending of the obvious bickering in Victoria, which has increased tremendously in the past year or two, is a relief. It was obvious the Coalition partnership was about to be dissolved and that it had already lasted too long. The average elector is pleased that the situation has now been clarified and a general election will be held within the next few months.

Lost in the Shuffle

One of the results of the political manoeuvring which took place in Victoria last week will be sincerely regretted by most people of this province: the disappearance of Hon. E. C. Carson as Minister of Public Works. Mr. Carson was one of the four Conservative members of the Cabinet and when the Conservative leader, Mr. Anscomb, was personally asked for his resignation by Premier Johnson, the other Conservative ministers, including Mr. Carson, also resigned. Politically, we suppose that Mr. Carson could do nothing else, but it was with sincere regret that we saw him leave the public works portfolio.

During Mr. Carson's tenure of office, this province saw a vast improvement in its highways. It was he who inaugurated the policy of building as good roads as could be built rather than the light, patchwork system in vogue before. It is to him credit must go for the major portion of our new construction and it was under him that the public works department was given adequate equipment with which to carry out its maintenance work.

Mr. Carson had a broad viewpoint and an eye to the future. He made no promises he did not expect to keep and he did not hesitate to answer localized pressure groups with a definite "No." He was an able administrator and had those other qualities necessary to make him a "good minister."

His was no easy task for when he assumed office this province was almost without a modern highway and in desperate need of thousands of miles of it, to say nothing of many more thousands of miles of adequate secondary roads. Mr. Carson set his sights for a network of main highways reaching into all the widely separated areas of the province, knowing that as good highways were made available, traffic would increase and further revenue for highway work would be available. While he did not remain in office to see his highway network entirely completed, as he drives over the province in future years he can take real personal pride in the results of his efforts which may be seen on every hand.

It would be no misnomer to call him the "founder of our modern highway system" and some recognition of his service might well be given through the naming of some highway for him. Whether this be done or not, however, it will be many years before the name of E. C. Carson is disassociated from our system of good roads. It is regrettable that our system of government has removed from office such an excellent minister before his task was completed.

The Sun Gets an Idea

This newspaper has had more than one chuckle during the past three months when it has read the editorial page of the Vancouver Sun. That newspaper has gone "all out" in advocating that any new appointee to the post of Governor-General should not be a Canadian, as has been intimated, but some prominent citizen of one of the other countries of the British Commonwealth.

First Peep Is Allowed at Mystery Fighter

OFF THE SECRET LIST of Britain recently came this new jet aircraft which has been described as "the mystery fighter." In releasing the first and only photograph, the British claimed the aircraft to be the world's first twin-engine operational Delta (delta is the Greek letter δ , shaped like a triangle). Other details were scarce, but, in naming it the GA 5, its manufacturers, Hawker-Siddeley, mentioned that the triangular design was helpful at some speeds. It is known to have the formidable power of two Sapphire jets, to be a day-and-night, long-range all-weather job, and as the British have proved they have something when it comes to jets, this latest should be important to western defence.

FORECAST CORRECT

Premier Had Ample Justification In Asking Anscomb To Resign Post

By "RPM"

Two weeks ago this newspaper editorially said that Premier Johnson had ample justification for asking for the resignation of his minister of finance, Hon. Herbert Anscomb, if he chose to do so. A week ago we suggested that this resignation would be sought following the forthcoming session of the Legislature and that a Liberal government would endeavor to carry on for some months before appealing to the country.

Those forecasts were accurate in everything but the actual timing. Mr. Johnson asked for Mr. Anscomb's resignation, not after the session, but before it. This puts a completely new aspect upon the political picture in this province. It indicates that we will have a general election soon, probably very quickly.

Had Mr. Johnson waited until after the forthcoming session, it would have seemed probable that he would have carried on with the Liberal administration until the next session, probably holding on for another session. However, as he is now apparently to lead a Liberal government through the February session, it is probable that an election will be called quickly after that.

PREMATURE PRESS RELEASE

The succession of events last week are interesting. A meeting of the cabinet was called and Mr. Johnson, considerably annoyed by Mr. Anscomb's premature release of the details of the financial agreement with Ottawa (as reported elsewhere in this issue), asked for Mr. Anscomb's personal resignation. That fact is not only interesting; it is important. It did not mean the resignation of the Conservative ministers; only the personal resignation of Mr. Anscomb. This may suggest that he had hopes that the three other Conservative ministers would remain in the cabinet. In any event it left the decision up to them and when they resigned they did so of their own initiative. This puts Mr. Johnson technically in the right when he said it was not he but the Conservatives who ended the Liberal-Conservative partnership.

Another point which just about everyone overlooked was that the withdrawal of the Conservatives did not mean the end of the Coalition government. To all intents and purposes it does, of course, because there is no doubt that the new government will be considered a Liberal one.

But, technically, at least, Mr. Johnson pulled a smart one in keeping the support of the three members of the Legislature who had been elected as Coalitionists, and with one of them, Hon. John Cates, already a member of the cabinet, the illusion of a continuance of a coalition government was technically correct. The other two Coalitionists, upon whom the Liberals depend are B. M. McIntyre, of MacKenzie and H. J. Welch, of Comox.

CONTROL 26 VOTES

With the support of these three Mr. Johnson will control 26 votes in the House. The Conservative official opposition will have a strength of 11, while the CCF have 9, Labor 1 and W. A. C. Bennett and Mrs. Rolston will sit as independents.

Ten days ago, this newspaper commented that the progress of political events in this province would depend upon the amount of rank and file strength Mr. Johnson carried with him when he walked out of the Liberal executive meeting the previous week. At that time

Tribute To Press

(By Courier Staff Reporter)

PENTICTON—Tribute to the Kelowna Valley press was paid by George Fitzgerald, East Kelowna grower and a member of the BCFGA executive near the close of the three-day convention held last week in Penticton.

Mr. Fitzgerald said the press had co-operated with the BCFGA to the fullest extent. He recalled the crisis in the fruit industry earlier in the year and stated the newspapers could have "jumped on the story" and played it to the extent that the whole foundation of the BCFGA could have been at stake.

Instead, Mr. Fitzgerald said, they exercised discretion, and treated the story in very "diplomatic fashion."

Mr. Fitzgerald said the press had told the story of BCFGA in a very capable manner, and commended the newspapermen on the interest shown in the convention. He pointed out that the newspapers devote many columns of news space to deliberations, and that they are providing a vital service to the industry.

Mr. Fitzgerald's remarks met with the unanimous approval of delegates, who recorded their appreciation in the usual fashion.

MARRIED 60 YEARS

Elderly Couple in Lloyd-Jones Home Mark Diamond Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Magee, formerly of Wolsley, Saskatchewan, and Kelowna residents for the past ten years, recently celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary at the David Lloyd-Jones Senior Citizens Home on Bernard Avenue.

They were married on December 31, 1891.

Mrs. Magee vividly recalls the ceremony, performed by Rev. Alexander Campbell in the Presbyterian church. A sister who acted as bridesmaid now resides in Victoria.

The combined ages of the happy old couple total 172 years.

Robert Alexander Magee was born near Ottawa, May 21, 1894. Elsie Margaret Magee was born in Toronto, October 5, 1894.

In 1922, Mr. and Mrs. Magee moved from Wolsley to Moosomin where Mr. Magee was appointed sheriff.

A life-long member of the Liberal party, he was later elected to the legislature as member for the Moose Mountain constituency.

Prior to his entry into the political arena and his appointment as sheriff of the judicial district of Moosomin, Mr. Magee owned and operated a general store.

Mr. Magee happily recalled that Jimmy Gardiner made the first

Mr. Magee got 40, and won an unanimous victory.

He later had the honor of making the throne speech during the

Okanagan Apples Get Priority In Texas

Down in Texas they prefer Okanagan apples to those from Washington. A grocer in Brown, Texas, has written The Courier: "I am in the grocery business and sell a great deal of apples from Kelowna in our produce department. The public here prefers them to Washington apples. This is excellent publicity for your country."

BABY! IT'S COLD OUTSIDE

Forecast that an Arctic mass of air hovering over the Central Interior would move in on the Okanagan today was borne out in the steady decline of the temperatures up to press time this afternoon.

A drop of 12 degrees was registered unofficially in the past three hours, with a biting wind veering from east to northeast. Light snow also was falling.

Polar air did hold the valley in its grip early last week, but a Pacific storm displaced it, pushing the cold mass back.

Record temperatures for this winter were set in the far north during the night, with a 78 below at Snag, Yukon, airport on the Alaska Highway. This was only five degrees warmer than the coldest on record in Canada. That was 83 below, also registered at Snag, two winters ago.

Maximum, minimum and snowfall for the past four days, according to R. P. Walrod, official weather observer here, follow:

POLICE CAR COLLIDES WITH TRUCK

Fairly heavy damage was caused in a collision about 8 a.m. today at Bernard and Ellis. The truck struck the police car, a 1951 Ford, on the right side, causing damage estimated at $300. Truck damage was set at $150.

Police would not release any information but it was learned the driver of the police car was Constable B. W. Giberson, on the Kelowna Detachment only a short time. He was accompanied by Constable R. G. Brookbank.

Driver of the truck was Bob Cunningham, West Kootenay manager for Kelowna. The intersection was slick from daily thaws and frost at night.

Witnesses said the police car was proceeding east along Bernard and the truck north on Ellis. The truck struck the police car, a 1951 Ford, on the right side, causing damage estimated at $300. Truck damage was set at $150.

Party Heads Welcome End of Coalition

LOCAL political parties are dusting the cob-webs off election machinery in preparation for a provincial election in May or June.

Sudden collapse of the Coalition of Liberals and Conservatives has resulted in B.C. political stewpot boiling merrily. Spokesmen of all three political parties, as well as the newly-organized Social Credit group, welcomed the final divorce of the Coalition partnership.

Already moves are being made to start re-organizing parties in the South Okanagan constituency in preparation for an early election. Premier Johnson's announcement regarding the election date—which will probably come when the Legislature meets on February 19—is awaited with keen interest. South Okanagan constituency candidates will probably not be nominated until after the election date is set.

The CCF nominating convention is tentatively set for April 28 in Summerland, but the South Okanagan constituency president, Mrs. L. L. Purdy, said the date would be changed if conditions warrant it.

The South Okanagan Liberal, Conservative and Social Credit organizations will continue to hold regular meetings. No special conferences are planned, but spokesmen for the parties admitted that preliminary plans are being made for a snap election.

After Premier Johnson "tread" for his resignation Premier Johnson in a press statement stated that "in spite of repeated violations by Mr. Anscomb of those principles governing the responsibilities of a cabinet minister, I have in the public interest long refrained from taking this action. I have had no wish to create any instability in our economic and other affairs but the action of the minister of finance in giving to the press the results of negotiations at Ottawa before he had advised and consulted with his colleagues in the cabinet constitutes such a flagrant and arrogant disregard of the procedure of constitutional government that I had no other alternative."

Such action must have been merely for the sake of securing some publicity and cannot be countenanced. I cannot have any trust in a minister who resorts to such tactics, the premier stated.

REACH AGREEMENT
I note from the press statement issued by Mr. Anscomb that he says an agreement has been reached between the two governments. No agreement had been reached because the government of this province was not consulted by Mr. Anscomb before he issued his statement. In fact the first intimation I had that such a press statement existed was from the members of the press gallery who sought my observations in connection with it. It was necessary for my office to request and personally secure a copy of the release from Mr. Anscomb's office long after it had been issued to the press," the premier stated.

"This action on the part of Mr. Anscomb culminates a long series of political reprehensible actions, which in the public's interest I have in the past chosen to ignore inasmuch as there was so much at stake. There is still a great deal at stake in this province the success of which can only be achieved by having harmonious government, and this I believe can only be secured by the action I have been compelled to take in face the circumstances," the premier continued.

For nearly three years the minister of finance has deliberately baited my colleagues and me. He has carried on an open fight with a minister of the crown in direct contradiction to government policy on the question of removing appointment of King's Counsels from any influence of political importuning. In radio speeches he has given notice of dissolution of coalition and then at the same time carried on with an arrangement which he admits he does not like. At the last session of the legislature he delivered a budget address which was drastically rebuffed from the one he presented to cabinet.

Even with a start on the 20th, it could mean a game almost every night without rest if the semis and the final (also a best-of-five) went the whole route. For there are only 12 playing days (exclusive of Sunday) to fit in the maximum of 10 games so as to have a winner by March 4.

If it took up to March 4 to declare a winner, the league champs would have one day of rest and then begin their Savage Cup semi-finals, a best-of-five series, at home to the Coug winners on March 6.

The B.C. Savage Cup three-out-of-five final will be fought in the Kootenays.

If an OSAHL team wins the B.C. title, chances are exceptionally good that the Allan Cup inter-provincial playoffs will be held in the Okanagan. It could even lead to the Allan Cup finals being played in the Valley, providing an Okanagan team goes on to win the Western Canada title.

In another meeting Claude Small, of Vernon, conferred with six referees, reviewing the book from one end to the other. Referees in attendance were Arnold Smith, Bill Neilson and Fred Janicki, all of Vernon, and Ken Stewart, Al Swaine and Johnny Ursaki, all of Kamloops.

Team representatives conferred with the referees under their new chief (Small) and it was decided the referees should take a less strict approach in the interpretation of the rules. Up to now the arbiters have been calling almost everything according to the book.

Logging Truck-Trailer Drivers Fined in Court
Six Kelowna and District logging truck-trailer drivers were fined $10 and costs each in district police court Friday on charges in respect to the loads they carried.

Five of them—Edward Schneider, Andrew Metz, Elmer Popp, Cecil Philpott and Charles Philpott—were charged with carrying loads in excess in weight than that permitted for each axle.

William Schneider was fined for carrying a load higher than that allowed by law.

HIGHEST congregational total in the history of the parish was reported by Ven. D. S. Catchpole, at the annual vestry meeting of Saint Michael and All Angels' Church Wednesday night.

Mr. Catchpole also spoke of abatement which spurs the effectiveness of the work of the Sunday Schools, and of the problem of transportation for those in outlying districts who have no cars. With no Sunday service, these people find attendance at services almost impossible.

Cancer Sufferers Helped Materially By Kelowna Society, Meeting Learns

An interesting address on cancer by Dr. W. J. O'Donnell and year-end reports highlighted the annual general meeting of the Kelowna unit, Canadian Cancer Society, last Monday night.

In his president's report, Vic Franks, who was also re-elected to that office, reported the Kelowna unit had been active in all its branches of work. Endorsement of a resolution calling for elimination of the semi-annual meeting of the Cancer Society of B.C. came as a result of Kelowna's representation at the 1951 annual meeting in Vancouver, attended by Mr. Franks.

Another Kelowna resolution at the meeting was that the reserve fund be increased to $50,000 for the welfare fund. It was decided to increase the fund from $25,000 when funds are available as a general reserve fund, and not specifically for welfare.

Kelowna unit assistance to local cancer sufferers totalled $918, in the past year, and covered transportation, drugs and housekeeper service.

Vic Franks, local unit president, and Director C. R. Bull will represent the Kelowna branch at the divisional meeting slated for February 17 in Vernon. Resolutions from there go to the annual meeting later in Vancouver, which Mr. Franks is expected to attend.

Secretary, Mrs. J. F. Hampson, reported a total of seven welfare cases had been assisted by the Kelowna unit in the past year. Aid is in the form of transportation costs to the Institute in Vancouver, housekeeper services, drug bills, and Christmas hampers and artificial limbs.

Harold Capozzi Magically Transports Listeners On Fascinating Tour of Italy

By ED HUNT

"Just Italy," was the title of an address given by Harold (Herb) Capozzi on Tuesday evening when he spoke before local Rotarians and Rotary, Annes in the Royal Anne Hotel.

HERB CAPOZZI

Recently arrived home from a 19 months' visit to the European continent, where he studied under a Rotary Foundation Scholarship, Mr. Capozzi did not disappoint his audience and proved to be an accomplished speaker. He took them on a verbal tour, transporting his listeners to a strange land 4,000 miles across the ocean, by the magic of his words.

He paid sincere tribute to the Kelowna Rotary Club for affording him the opportunity of becoming a Rotary Foundation Fellow.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Capozzi, were head table guests, and their widely-travelled son proudly acknowledged his great debt to them.

In opening his address, Mr. Capozzi reviewed Italy's historic past.

Great contributions to civilization had been made by the Romans, he said. Italy gave the world birth and conquered the whole then known world by war and by love.

Homer, Cicero, Julius Caesar, Galileo, these are names that are known everywhere, Mr. Capozzi asserted.

ONE-THIRD OF B.C. Open to the sea on all sides but one, and shaped like a boot, Italy has only 116,000 square miles. It is but one-third the size of British Columbia which consists of 360,000 square miles.

Using a map to further illustrate his remarks, Mr. Capozzi said there were over 46,000,000 people crammed within Italy's narrow confines. Four times the population of all Canada, 23 times the population of British Columbia.

Italy is a land of contrasts. Not only geographically but economically as well; towering Alps rise to the north, lush valleys lie to the south. Although there is color and pomp, there is also appalling poverty and despair.

Over-population and poverty are twin problems in this lovely land; a shortage of water is their number three concern.

The average rainfall in Italy is about equal to Kelowna's. However, there is little snow in the southern regions and they also lack our irrigation systems.

ITALY'S SALVATION Thanks to the Marshall plan, new dams are being built in the south. Without American aid this would have been utterly impossible, Mr. Capozzi said.

"The Marshall Plan is the only thing that saved Italy," said the speaker. "Over $2,000,000,000 in the last four years! Over 15 dams have been built to industrialize the north! New dykes and storage dams have been built elsewhere to further cultivation."

The importance of agriculture can be appreciated when it is realized that over 50 percent of the people in Italy are dependent upon the land for their support.

Italy has no oil, no iron. All raw materials must be imported. At the moment, Italy's economy is fairly comfortable.

"But what will happen when the controls are taken away?" Mr. Capozzi asked.

He said that people in Northern Italy were "the best dressed in Europe."

POVERTY IN SOUTH But in the southern regions there is underemployment of poverty.

"We have no idea what poverty is," said the scholarly speaker. "Many live in caves, hovels, utter wretchedness."

"It is our duty and obligation to assist them, to permit them to come here and work," he said.

The gravity of the situation can readily be seen because the population is increasing at the alarming rate of 300,000 a year.

But while there is this suicidal and poverty-ridden situation prevalent, there is also a brighter picture because Italy is a country of beautiful, smiling people.

MIRACLE OF ITALY Mr. Capozzi referred to it as "the miracle of Italy." That miracle began when the first Romans came from Greece and landed at Sicily.

Invited by every country in Europe—literally "booted" around Italy has felt the French influence, German, Yugoslavian.

While Roman is the basic Italian language, there are many different dialects spoken. In some areas Italian is not spoken at all. It is only when the common language—Roman—is spoken, that all can understand each other.

Italy is a young nation and attained that status in October, 1870. Beautiful cities such as Venice, Florence, Milan, are a delight to see, said the youthful speaker.

While most Canadians think of Italians as being dark, Mr. Capozzi said the reason for this is that 75 percent of the immigrants coming to Canada, come from the south of Italy. Over 15,000 have come from 1900 to the present day. Few if any northern Italians have migrated to Canada. They are not dark, but blonde.

DEVASTATED BY WAR Mr. Capozzi reviewed the part Italy had played in two world wars. In the first great war, Italy lost 600,000 men. While it was agreed that she should receive a fair share of German colonies, Italy's reward as an ally was 9,000 square miles in the most arid section in Africa.

As for the Second World War, the effect was disastrous with roads and factories blown sky high and 70 percent of the trains destroyed.

What of Mussolini? Benito offered Italians "a place in the sun." "History will place him higher than we do today. We shouldn't underestimate what fascism did for Italy." "Fascism, as fascism, is finished!" "People of the world should understand what Mussolini did. He enabled Italians to raise their heads to remember the glories of their historic heritage. Mussolini realized how dangerous communism is. Before the war there were no communists in Italy. Today there are 2,000,000."

THREAT OF COMMUNISM Mr. Capozzi stated that "ex-fascists are the only people in Italy who would defend that country if it was attacked by the communists."

The rest of the populace feel that war is futile. They are cynical and pessimistic and believe that "the communists could be in Rome in three days" if hostilities commenced.

Because the communists control the labor unions in Italy, the only way a person can get a job is to become a communist, the Rotary Foundation Scholarship speaker said.

Italy is tired of war, weary of conflict. They are even resigned to the flies. This was proven in Naples where Mr. Capozzi noticed a swarm of flies in a cafe.

"Why don't you do something about these flies?" queried Herb as a waiter approached. Then he added: "Why not fight a war?" "We did," shrugged the waiter resignedly, "but the flies won."

OPPOSE REARMAMENT While the flies can be annoying, Italy has other problems, too. Foremost among these is rearmament. But because there is a feeling that the communists won't attack, many are against spending money for rearmament when homes, schools, and roads are so badly needed.

Others are anxious to rearm and realize the threat that hangs over their heads. "But you can't force armament upon a people," said Kelowna's native son.

Sunny Italy is known for the excellence of her wines but wine sales are dropping steadily. There is a surplus of both grapes and wine and American wines are making steady inroads into the industry.

Today there are 2,000,000 unemployed in Italy. Another 1,000,000 exist on insufficient nourishment.

MONTHLY WAGE $60 A skilled worker gets only $60 a month. How can he live when a suit costs $87?

Because the average income is a mere $240 a year, Italy has no purchasing power to speak of.

There is also a shortage of skilled labor for the modern industrial plants. Many Italians have been brought to Canada to learn these trades.

When they return, another problem confronts Italy: how to create sufficient work for these teeming millions?

With a population density of 450 people to every square mile, compared with our population density of two people to every square mile, Italy has an almost insurmountable problem.

And yet, in this land of turmoil and enigmatic challenge, there is grandeur, stately cathedrals, sublime works of art.

"Italy rightfully deserves the title 'Garden of Europe,'" Mr. Capozzi said.

As he brought his address to a close, an added note of respect was audible as Mr. Capozzi thought of a small village near Naples. High in the mountains, it was from here that his father, affectionately known as "Cap" Capozzi, came 40 years ago.

Comparing his lot, as a son, with that of his father's long ago, he realized that it takes great courage to emigrate to an unknown land, to face unknown dangers, strange climates.

"Immigrants from all countries have brought courage and fortitude," he said with contrasting pride and humility.

What of those who perished during the Second World War? Imagine a mountain pass near Florence, a small road, a towering sentinel-like peak dominating the whole valley.

Marked by this mighty mass in a single marble column. Inscribed on it for all eyes to see are the words: "To our gallant dead, 43rd Division, 1943."

A little farther on is a German cemetery.

"I am sure," said Mr. Capozzi, "that if, any a German soldier and an American sailor, had sat in a small cafe enjoying a glass of beer together, they would have been friends instead."

In conclusion, he said that "Rotarians are building a great new highway to Peace."

An am deeply grateful for this experience.

Rotary president H. A. Truswell made the introduction and also thanked the speaker.

In December there were 15 Jersey cows completed records in the Okanagan Valley, led by Claremont Sparkling Gold Pansy, 162426.

A silver medal certificate went to the Experimental Station at Summerland, on the record completed by Summerland Pandora Barnette, 126892. This cow went on test as a senior two-year-old and in 325 days produced 9,588 lbs. of milk and 570 lbs. of fat.

She was also awarded a silver medal certificate for her 305-day production of 560 lbs. of fat.

Summerland Star's Arabis, 182163, in the Experimental Farm's herd as a senior three-year-old in 313 days produced 8,911 lbs. of milk and 487 lbs. of fat.

EX-GRADS UNWELCOME?

The Editor, The Kelowna Courier.
Dear Sir—What has happened to our High School?
We are shocked by the attitude of the teachers towards the Ex-Grads!
Why have Ex-Grads been told they were no longer welcome at social functions? We feel that it is a tribute to our school that we want to come back. Why can't we? Shouldn't school spirit continue after graduation?
It certainly gives Ex-Grads from other towns a bad impression of our school when they are met with—and we quote: "Who are you? Where do you come from? What are you doing here?" Can we rightly claim our title, "Kelowna, the Friendly City?" Does this promote good citizenship?
How can we speak with pride of our school when the rumor is spreading that our Students' Council is over-ruled by a few narrow-minded members of the faculty? What would happen if this was the case with our City Council?
We would like nothing better than to be proud of our school—how about giving us a hand!

Week-end Chatter

by MIL CRITTENDEN

Bon voyage to Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson who plan to leave soon for Honolulu!

Also enjoying southern climes are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hughes who left two weeks ago for Mexico and New Zealand.

I understand that the John Godfrey is also making plans for a trip to Mexico City in February.

Welcome to some new arrivals. Dr. and Mrs. Carruthers from Edmonton who have just taken up residence in Kelowna ... and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Scanland who have moved here from White Rock.

I hear that the Charlie Gaddes have met up with the Harry Butlers in Palm Springs—and all are having a wonderful time.

Win Shilcock will leave Thursday for Winnipeg where Investment Syndicate will hold a convention of divisional managers. He plans to be away a week or ten days.

Doreen and Jimmy Stewart who have moved to the Coast with their small son, Brian, have bought a home in North Vancouver.

Here's news of others who have been "in and out of town" recently. Marge Wilson is back in Kelowna after a trip to the Coast ... Mrs. John Russel from Vancouver is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Irene and George Athans ... George Rannard was down to Vancouver last week.

There's great excitement in the Nurses' Home these days as the date for the Jean Caracal-Don Day wedding approaches. The bride-to-be is a very attractive nurse who was a Lady-of-the-Lake contestant in 1950 and she will be attended by two other Kelowna nurses. The wedding reception will be the first ever held at the Nurses' Home and apparently the girls are going all out to make it a memorable affair. Dietician Peggy Dillabough is using her professional skill to dream up suitable refreshments.

Sleigh ride parties are enjoying a huge vogue in Kelowna. C. B. Fisher, who rents sleighs and horses, tells me that his business is setting an all-time record—and he's booked almost solidly for weeks ahead. Biggest party was the Gyro sleigh ride Friday night when almost fifty people gathered before and after at the Golf Club. Many clubs and office staffs have held or are planning to hold sleigh rides. The Riding Club has reservations for tomorrow night.

One of the most hilarious sleigh ride parties was held last night when about twenty people gathered at Marie and Tiny Walrods. Due to a mix-up in reservations the guests were waiting around—all dressed in their warmest outdoor togs—for a sleigh ride that never did arrive. However, everybody had a wonderful time with lots of fun and laughs—and some of the guests confessed that that was the kind of sleighride they liked best. Marie and Tiny have another sleigh ride party slated for next Saturday when they will entertain a different group of friends—and this time, Marie says that she's going to double-check on the reservations.

Dusty and Freda Woodhouse recently entertained at their home. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. Hector Moir, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Moir, Dr. and Mrs. George Athans, Dr. McPhillips, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Murky Cowie.

Packers Tied For 2nd Again

Fourth Straight Victory Rung
Up At Torrid Tempo Saturday

PENTICTON 3, KELOWNA 5

WITH the emphasis on the attack and all stops out, Kelowna Packers and Pentiction V's astonished a crowd of 1600 hockey patrons here Saturday as the Packers chalked up their fourth straight victory and their third in as many nights.

The 5-3 triumph was Kelowna's second in successive nights at the expense of the V's, further diminishing Pentiction's chances of making the playoffs. With 17 games left to play and still the WHL swing to make, the V's now are a full eight games behind Vernon and Kelowna, both tied for second.

In drawing abreast of the idle Vernon Canadians, the Packers now have played the same number of games (38) as Vernon, leaving 14 for both before the schedule ends.

Even the defence caught the wide-open mood Saturday, often-times leaving the twineaters all on their own. Back-and-forth action was so rapid the netmen, Roy McMeekin of Kelowna and the V's Ivan McLelland, were in a dither all night long and appeared ready to collapse when the terrific strain was all over.

McLelland was tested 45 times, possibly a record for regulation time in this league this year. V's had 30 shots on McMeekin.

GIFT GOALS
Both sides scored their first goals before the game was two minutes old as Pentiction unveiled some nifty combination and had the homesters befuddled the first 10 minutes. But then the Packers began to weave their own passing patterns gaining a 2-1 nod by the end of the first.

The initial canto produced two gift goals. Dick Warwick pounced on the rubber at the Kelowna blue-line after Mike Durban let it get away and then blasted a dead-on shot that McMeekin had little chance to save.

Towards the end of the period, Jim Middleton checked Don Johnson right in front of the Pentiction cage, speared the puck and whipped it in on a surprised McMeekin.

The opposing centre, Mike Daski and Warwick, sparked the offensive, both getting two goals. Warwick also got an assist to figure in all of Pentiction's goals and become high point-maker of the night. FROZEN FLURRIES—Absent from PAKERS' lineup was coach PHIL HERGESHEIMER, doled out a one-game suspension just an hour before game time. . . . But back on left wing was FRANK HOSKINS, recovered from his rib injury. . . . Missing on PENTICTON'S defence was KEVIN CONWAY, hurt in the game at home the night before. Hoskins came off the ice once after being jammed into the board, but he was able to resume his turn later.

BOB HOLMES crashed into the Kelowna goal post, sending a shudder rippling through the stands. He was not seriously hurt, however. . . . Two fans got hit in the head by flying pucks. . . . Twice Pentiction players got penalties when a Packer player was infringing on their rights at the same time but in such a way that the offenses eluded the eyes of the referees. . . . Two of KELOWNA'S goals came while holding a manpower advantage. Pentiction goals were scored while Kelowna was at full strength.

PENTICTON—Goal, McLelland; defence, Schmidt, King; center, Warwick; wings, Kilburn, Davison. Subs: Lewsey, Holmes, Bregg, Richardson, Rucks, Robson, Montgomery, Johnson.

KELOWNA—Goal, McMeekin; defence, Kuly, H. Amundrud; center, Daski; wings, Durban, Roche. Subs: Robertson, Hoskins, Middleton, Kaiser, K. Amundrud, Lowe, Hanson, Carlson.

First period—1, Kelowna, Daski (Durban) 1:31; 2, Pentiction, Warwick 1:40; 3, Kelowna, Middleton, 15:22. Penalties: King, 1:20; Kuly, 2:25; Davison, 10:08; Lowe, 14:15; Warwick, 14:39.

Second period—4, Kelowna, Daski (Kuly) 6:00; 5, Kelowna, Lowe (Kuly, K. Amundrud) 14:15. Penalties: Durban, 3:40; Lowe, 7:38; Davison, 13:48; Montgomery, 19:42.

Third period—6, Kelowna, Hoskins (Middleton, K. Amundrud) 4:41; 7, Pentiction, Kilburn (Warwick, Davison) 9:35; 8, Pentiction, Warwick (Schmidt, Kilburn) 19:57. Penalties: Schmidt, 2:43; King, 12:10.

LEADING DEFENCEMAN

FRANK KULY, reliable rear-guard with the Packers, garnered four points at Pentiction Friday, including the winning overtime goal, to give the Packers a 5-4 win. Kuly's fast becoming the top point-making blueliner in the league. He got two assists here Saturday as V's went down again, 5-3.

CLIMBING LADDER

AVERAGING two points a game at present, tricky Mike Daski of the Packers is climbing the scoring ladder but fast. The nifty centreman scored twice here Saturday as the Packers dumped Pentiction, 5-3. Daski's second goal, when he waited for Goaler McLelland to make his move first and then picked his spot to shoot, was the nicest of the night.

Hold Public Meeting
To Reform Ball Club

The call is out for all those interested in re-organizing the senior baseball club.

There will be a special public meeting for that purpose Friday at 8 p.m. in R.C. Tree Fruits board room. All players, would-be players and baseball fans are urged to turn out. The sponsorless club ("We're entirely on our own," said one of last year's players) hopes players can be elected and preliminary plans completed in time to present a solid front at the league meeting, set for Kelowna the following week Jan. 31.

VERNON—The Business Girls' Curling Club will sponsor a leap year mixed bonspiel Feb. 29, March 1-2.

Capozzi Helps Rutlanders
Gain First Hoop Triumph

RUTLAND 36, LAKERS 21

The return of Herb Capozzi, though it may be only temporary—to the cage wars helped the Rutland team register their first victory Wednesday in the weekly sessions of the city and district commercial basketball hoop.

In posting a 36-21 triumph the Rutlanders also spoiled the Lakers' undefeated string. Meanwhile the Golden Owls of Kelowna High School climbed into a tie for first place by dumping the Klowns 48-28.

With big Capozzi it was a case of going on the team that needed help the most. Things looked even dimmer for a while for the Rutlanders after their star, Don Gillard, left the district to find work.

But Capozzi provided the spark that ignited a decisive win over the Lakers. Herb's nine points were three less than teammates Graham's but topped any of the Lakers.

In the other fixture, the Owls poured on the pressure with a vim, shaded only once in the third quarter. Dave Wiens showed the way to their 48-28 win with 16 points, followed by Bruce Butcher with 10. Bill Kane, Kelowna's captain, paced his team with eight points, followed by Bob Giordano with seven.

Games this week will see the Lakers and Owls fight it out for first place at 8 p.m., with the Flyers and Klowns taking the floor at 7:00 p.m. (Games are Wednesdays in the Senior High Gym.)

LAKERS—Anderson 4, Weddell 4, Saucier 7, Hampson 4, Lennie, Smeeth 2, Wurst. Total 21.

RUTLAND—Capozzi 9, Mallach 5, Stranghan 6, Graham 12, Kitaura, Fitzpatrick. Total 36.

OWLS—Wiens 16, Greenaway, Schenmer 9, Ueyama 1, Marr 4, Lofting, Tait, Butcher 10, Scantland 6, Serva 2, Totaj 48.

KLOWNS—Ritchey, Bennett 2, Giordano 7, Kane 8, Lansdowne 5.

MINOR HOCKEY
GROUP CALLS
SECOND PARLEY

The few helping Kelowna and District Minor Hockey Association achieve its worthwhile aims had their faith in fellow men rudely shaken again when a meeting was called for last week to make plans for the annual jamboree.

Turnout was so poor, little if anything could be done. Another meeting has been called for Wednesday of this week; at the arena at 7:30. Coaches, managers and all men, or women, who have any yen towards minor hockey at all, are urged to attend the important meeting.

Beavers Blank Grizzlies

Don Bennett figured in both goals as the Beavers blanked the Grizzlies 2-0 in a midweek hockey league fixture here Wednesday. Don scored the second goal and relayed to Joe Fisher for the first as the Beavers handed netman Sordy a well-earned shutout. Fishers and Grizzlies' Eisner were banned for five minutes in the third for fighting.

Clippers Poor Match for Hustling, Checking Locals

NANAIMO 2, KELOWNA 5

Nanaimo Clippers were out of their own league in more than one sense here Thursday as they were soundly beaten 5-2 by the Kelowna Packers in an interleague fixture that counted in both the Pacific Coast amateur circuit and the OSAHL standings.

It was the second loss in as many nights for the depleted Clippers, some of whose better players were left at home and who tied only 13 in the Kelowna game, what with Hermie Gruhn sitting out a one-game suspension following the match misconduct doled out at Pentiction Wednesday night.

For the third home game in a row the Packers' netman, Roy McMeekin, came close to registering his initial shutout. Packers had a 5-0 lead with less than nine minutes to go when in a scramble in front of the goal, two Packers rode the puck in past McMeekin.

The goal was credited to Bob Rowledge, and strangely two assists were given on it. Nearly five minutes later Billy Snider combined with Don Berry to give the Clippers their only legitimate tally, ending the scoring at 5-2.

AVERTED MASSACRE
Displaying their accustomed hustle and checking prowess and with some polished passing to boot, the Packers had the Clippers in a state of disorder most of the way. Doug Jackson stood out in the Nanaimo cause and edge as he weathered a storm of rubber to keep the Packers from making it a rout.

After a mediocre first period in which the locals climbed into a 1-0 lead, Phil Hergeshelmer slipped in two goals before the eight-minute mark to seal the visitors' doom. Brian Roche from Mike Daski made it 4-0 four minutes later.

Early in the third Daski and Roche combined again, with the former's shot stopped by Jackson but the puck fell between his legs and trickled crazily over the goal line.

PENALTIES PAY OFF
Kelowna outshot Nanaimo 34-10, bottling the Islanders in their own end for minutes at a time. Penalties figured prominently in the outcome as Packers notched three of their goals while holding a manpower advantage.

Packers' ever-improving checking nullified most of Nanaimo's would-be pressure plays when the homesters were short through penalties.

CLIPPERS SENT HOME WITHOUT A SINGLE WIN

(Special to The Kelowna Courier)
KAMLOOPS—The league-leading Kamloops Elks of the OSAHL scored a goal in every period to defeat the Nanaimo Clippers 3-1 before a packed arena here Saturday.

It was the Pacific Coast senior club's fourth straight loss at the hands of the OSAHL teams, sending the Islanders home without a win. But for some stellar goal-tending by Doug Jackson the Clippers would have been farther behind here Saturday. He was tested with 10 shots in both the first and final period and 11 in the second frame.

There were 13 penalties handed out in the rugged game, four of them going to Nanaimo's Danny McDougald.

HEADS GAME CLUB
KAMLOOPS—Frank Brown was elected president of the Kamloops Fish and Game Protective Association at the Annual meeting.

During the Riel Rebellion, Robert Alexander Magee, served with a special scouting party. The party was formed following a great massacre in the United States, where which alone slaughtered 300 members of the American army in the area seventy miles south of Wolsley.

It was feared that some of the rebels would join with the half-breeds because there were two Indian reservations nearby. The scouting party covered 120 miles each day but fears proved to be unfounded.

Mrs. Magee also knows the meaning of risk and remembers the time she journeyed to Prince Albert over the turbulent Saskatchewan river. Railroads were but a dream then.

Although her hearing has been considerably impaired, Mrs. Magee has an amazing memory. Mr. Magee hears well but his recollection of past events is not as sharp.

It was through Dr. Knox's recommendation that they moved into the David Lloyd-Jones Senior Citizens
Home a few short months ago.

They refer to lady-in-charge, Mrs.
Bob Richmond, "as wonderful and awful kind... she never gets flustered."

Although old in the eyes of this world, both Mr. and Mrs. Magee have a keen sense of humor and laugh readily.

"Mr. Magee has been an elder in the United Church for over fifty years."

"What is their philosophy?"
"Help your fellow man."

he seemed to have won his fight within his own party.

There are those who will argue that the results of the past week indicate he did not, but that his opposition did and forced his hand.

However, while willing to admit the rebel group of Liberals have obtained what they wanted, the breakup of the Liberal-Conservative partnership, this writer is inclined to believe that the subsequent events indicate Johnson's strength rather than his weakness.

It has been no secret for many months that Mr. Johnson was more than restive about Mr. Anscomb's continual political campaign, reaching for events in government matters. The Premier had adopted a policy of saying nothing in the interest of harmony and he did just that. There had been many disagreements and one or two downright family brawls about Mr. Anscomb's remarks, but these were kept thin the family circle and as far as the public was concerned, Mr.
Johnson remained mum.

BUDGET SPEECH CHANGED
For instance, a year ago Mr. Anscomb submitted his budget speech to caucus and had it okayed. But when he delivered it in the House, it was changed and the change carried an attack on one of his colleagues, Health Minister Turnbull.

Then, there was Mr. Anscomb's radio speech of two weeks ago, which must have irked his Coalition partners as it was an out-and-out vote-for-me address it there ever was one.

With the background of the very recent stormy Liberal meeting in his return from Ottawa, where he from Ottawa, where he
from Ottawa, where he

his hand and announced that the government had made an agreement, before he had consulted Mr.
Johnson about the terms of that very agreement. This was too much for Mr. Johnson, fresh from that stormy Liberal meeting, could take no more. For some months it had been no secret that he, himself, was considering resigning and it was freely rumored that he probably would not lead the party into a general election. But now it would seem that he has decided to fight.

He asked for Mr. Anscomb's personal resignation, hoping perhaps the other Conservatives would say,
"One can't blame Carson, Eyres and McDonald very much for also resigning. After all Mr. Anscomb is their chief and if they had failed to follow him, it would have meant leaving the Conservative party or a new party disruption and probably leadership fight right on the eve of an election. They chose the easier, the more natural course."

RESCUE CARAVAN REACHES SNOW-BOUND TRAIN, REMOVES 226 PASSENGERS

AN AERIAL VIEW of the luxury passenger train "City of San Francisco," festooned with snow and ice in the Donner Pass of the high Sierras, where it was trapped by snow drifts and avalanches with 226 persons aboard. At right is one of the several tractors used in an attempt to clear a path for rescue crews. Evacuation of the chilled passengers, some of whom had been felled by gas fumes from a train-lighting plant, was made by snow tractors.

INDIAN FARMER MENTIONED BY U.S. PRESIDENT

—Central Press Canadian

RAM GOPAL of Etawah is the Indian farmer who raised 63 bushels of wheat to the acre, where 13 bushels had been the average before. Gopal's bumper crop was the result of using better seed and farming methods introduced at Etawah by Horace Holmes, chief of the U.S. agricultural work in India, and his Indian co-workers. President Truman mentioned Ram Gopal in a speech and said: "There is nothing of greater importance in all U.S. foreign policy. There is nothing that shows more clearly what we stand for, and what we want to achieve."

A WORKING CREW attempts to free another snowbound train after the worst storm in fifty years swept through California and Nevada, bringing transportation and communication to a halt in many sections. Farther south floods brought on by 10 inches of rain, ruined whole communities. One man, caught in a sudden flood, drowned in his car.

DR. J. R. ERVIN of San Francisco, is shown aboard the helicopter that flew him to the side of the snow-bound luxury passenger train trapped in the Donner Pass with 226 persons aboard. The doctor was lowered to the train by a rescue harness. The helicopter dropped three bundles of medical supplies and a package of food.

She admitted she intended to commit suicide because "My husband doesn't love me any more."

VERNON—A doubling of the population of British Columbia within the next quarter century, and consequently an increasing domestic demand for the products of the Okanagan, were seen by the Hon. Robert W. Mayhew, federal Minister of Fisheries, here last week, to be good reasons for optimism regarding the valley's economic survival and for retention of its present agricultural and horticultural role in the province.

BARON SCIPION DE BOURNE appeared at the Paris Palais de Justice to tell of how he was swindled out of some 110 million francs by a band of crooks over an 18-month period. The baron said the gang played on his patriotic instincts and got him interested in "heavy water," the stuff used in atomic work, but it turned out to be just the usual Adam's ale mixed with sand. He lost a lot of money in the water scheme. He lost another million in a single hour in a card game with the sharpers, who played with trick cards and trick dollars.

Convention Delegates Adopt Proposed Changes to Set-Up Of Growers' Organization

(By Courier Staff Reporter)

PENTICTON—Major changes in the set-up of the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association as recommended by the planning committee, were unanimously adopted by the 83-odd delegates on the final day of the 63rd annual convention held in Penticton last week.

The proposed recommendations, as outlined in an exclusive story carried by The Courier a couple of weeks ago, will come into effect on September 1, 1952. President A. R. Garrish said the May meeting—the time when the executive of the BCFG elects its new president—will be the last spring conference. In future the president will be elected at the annual meeting.

The pooling committee won a moral victory in that all resolutions pertaining to a change in the pooling system, were thrown out by delegates. Total of five resolutions touching on the subjects were defeated. These pertained to pooling information; composition of the apple pooling committee; values of various apple varieties and the pear pooling.

BASIS OF RETURNS

Present policy, set forth by Gordon Wright, Oliver member of the pooling committee, pays "generally" on a basis of returns from the grade variety and marketability of what they ship.

Key resolution, from Westbank local, asked that "all varieties and grades stand on their own feet."

It was defeated along with three other resolutions in the same vein. But, another from Penticton, which asked that the sluggish Flemish Beauty pear be pooled separately from the popular Bartlett, was set over to the next day. This was later tossed out.

As the 400 delegates and visitors returned to their homes early Friday morning following last Thursday's evening session—the first night session on the final day in over six years—they were loud in their praise for President Garrish who guided the three-day parley in an efficient manner. The new and "youthful" president, grew in stature hourly, with his parliamentary skill, his ability to keep things moving, and his fairness to giving delegates an opportunity to speak.

City of Penticton was host at a banquet on Wednesday night. Hon. W. H. Mayhew, minister of fisheries, was guest speaker.

"DON'T QUIT"

"Don't quit now," Mr. Mayhew said. "In 25 years Canada will have 35 million population, but there are a very few suitable fruit growing areas in the nation, and the Okanagan cannot be stretched."

The convention later passed a resolution submitted by Oyama, going on record to "express thanks" to Hon. Mr. Mayhew, for his very sincere regret that the arrangements made for delegates to hear his address were not more adequate. We also wish to record our appreciation of the services Mr. Mayhew has rendered on our behalf."

The minister, it was learned, had been prepared to speak for about 40 minutes, but owing to the short space of time, was obliged to curtail his talk.

FARM LABOR

Growers were bluntly told by William McGillivray, director of the farm labor service, that they must take more interest in the FLS and be prepared to pay fair wages, supply adequate accommodation and give "continuity" of employment. If they wanted a high type of farm laborer, "The situation is extremely serious," he said and "I would welcome a closer contact with the BCFG in order to meet requirements of the industry." He felt growers could do a lot to help themselves as a large percentage of the farm laborers prefer to work in the south end of the valley rather than in the northern area. "The BCFG is getting the best type of labor in proportion to what the growers want to pay," he said.

The convention later adopted a resolution asking that a ruling be laid down by the department of education permitting high schools in such districts to be closed for the purpose of harvesting the crop when essential and the authority a public criticism of a fellow minister of the crown. These and many other instances my colleagues and I forebore in the best interests of the people. But there comes a time when repeated violations of constitutional procedure cannot be longer countenanced.

The failure to consult the members of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council before issuing a press statement on his negotiations at Ottawa has strained my patience to the breaking point.

"Prior to giving this statement, and prior to his departure for the east, Mr. Anscomb recorded a fifteen minute speech for the CBC in which he stated and I quote:

"Now let me go further than that and say that our position in the coalition has some times been rather a difficult one. Many problems have come up and been dealt with that have not necessarily received our support in the ordinary sense of the political life of the country, but in a coalition we recognize our responsibility as a democratic force and have given way to the majority which, of course, is right and proper under our system of democracy."

"I quote this statement," the premier said, "because it is so indicative of many other statements of a similar character that Mr. Anscomb has made when he seems to have desired to express his disapproval of government policy while still at the same time remaining within the government."

"Mr. Anscomb, I fear, is not familiar with his obligations as a minister of the crown under our form of constitutional government. And in this connection I would refer to F. A. Ogg, who in his 'English Government and Politics,' page 151 says: 'For, within ministry and cabinet, alike the premier is the key man, even if not always the outstanding personality. He has put the other ministers where they are. He exercises a general surveillance and co-ordinating with individual members encouraging, admonishing, advising, instructing. He irons out difficulties arising between members or departments. If necessary he can require of his colleagues that they accept his views, with the alternative of his resignation; for it is tactically essential that the cabinet, however divided in its opinion when behind closed doors, shall present a solid front to parliament and the world.'"

"There have been cases in which a cabinet minister has resigned rather than accept a policy supported by the Prime Minister."

"Indeed, he can, and occasionally does, request and secure from the sovereign the removal of a minister for insubordination or other offense."

"Illustration of this was the dismissal of E. S. Montagu, as secretary of state for India in 1922 on the ground that he had given publicity to an important state paper without communicating and consulting with his colleagues. He is, and is expected to be, the leader of the ministerial group, its chief spokesman. He will have to bear the brunt of attacks made upon it, and it is logical enough that his authority shall be disciplinary as well as merely moral."

FRED MADDEN ACTING MANAGER OF NEW ARENA

PENTICTON—Fred Madden, engineer at the Memorial Arena, has been appointed acting manager of the arena, effective Jan. 21, according to a parks board announcement made last week.

Mr. Madden will work in co-operation with Reg. Wallis whose resignation was announced earlier this month and which will become effective January 31.

The new official is no stranger to arena operation.

He has acted as assistant arena manager in Neson where he was employed as associate ice maker and operator, after his discharge from the forces in 1947, until he came to Penticton when the arena here opened.

The Passing Parade

By JACK SCOTT

HOW TO KILL

Murder mysteries are intriguing and probably account for the staggering sale of detective story magazines, but I am obsessed by a more macabre aspect of the fine art of murder. Like the fisherman who broods over the big one that got away, I am interested in the killers still at large.

The sobering fact is that we have no way of knowing the true statistics on homicide, no way of knowing how many murderers are walking the streets as free men, no way of knowing what they did with the bodies.

The crimes of passion, the spur-of-the-moment killings induced largely by alcohol, are jealousy, are almost always detected, but there is no way of knowing how many cunning, cold-blooded, premeditated slayings have been committed successfully.

We cannot know of the perfect crimes.

You might suppose that murder is the most difficult of all crimes to get away with. Not at all.

A certain detective friend of mine whose whole adult life has been spent sniffing down the gory trails of violent deaths, once claimed that he could successfully handle a round dozen murders himself, murders without a trace, yet each demanding an original technique in the act and the disposing of the cadaver.

Ever hear of the Missing Person Bureau? Each major city has lists as long as your arm. Where are those people? Well, most of them have strayed and become lost in the crowd of the world. But how many lie bludgeoned in some lonely woods? Or weighted at the bottom of the river? Or grey ashes in a furnace grate?

Most good detectives think along such lines, mainly because they've all seen so many "natural" deaths that were strongly suspicious.

The law itself is, in a sense, on the side of the murderer. Few laymen realize the amount of evidence it takes to convict a man of homicide.

Time after time the authorities will survey the evidence, often knowing in their hearts, that they are dealing with an authentic criminal case, but will decide that the element of so-called "reasonable doubt" makes it inadvisable to press a charge. To an Attorney-General only admissible fact is important.

The law holds that a man is innocent until proven guilty and hard proof is often mighty tenuous.

Consider, for example, the apparent suicides, the jumps off the end of boats, the gas turned on, the leap from tall buildings. In case after case the murderer, if such there was could have been the only witness.

It is claimed that even the heart attack may be brought on by a methodical use of certain drugs over a long period.

It might be argued that the missing link in this kind of speculation is that few people have a motive for murder.

There are, however, a good many. Financially, there are the insurance and inheritance aspects, the kind of thing that caused little Arthur Guay to smuggle a bomb aboard that airliner. Emotionally there are jealousy, hatred, euthanasia.

Some professional criminologists take the view that there's a little murder in the best of us, especially in a post war period when killing may seem relatively less important and when a good many neuroses are in full flower.

It is worth considering, too, that murder may be a hobby. I remember discussing this morbid subject with my detective friend.

"A modern Bluebeard?" he asked. "Why not? Maybe your neighbor is one. Maybe you passed one in the street today. You see, we presume there is innocence behind an innocent face. We are unwilling to speak evil of our fellow men, yet in all the animal world there's none quite so evil as the human."

position politically. As for the dominant party in the House they can formulate the policies and call the House. Several House committees are now preparing reports and should these reports be adopted as government policy, the Conservatives will find it difficult to criticize too strongly as the report represents the work of Conservative as well as Liberal members. For instance the hospital insurance report is said to be an unanimous one. How can those Conservative and the CCF member who have given their approval to the recommendations of the report oppose the Liberals if they decided to implement those recommendations by legislation? Such a position would be obviously inconsistent.

MUST SHARE BLAME

However, while the Liberals would seem to hold the most advantageous position politically, as the dominant factor in the Coalition Government, they must accept their share of the blame for the blunders of that government. Although on the whole the record of the government was good, several blunders were made and two of these, at least, were of a major character: hospital insurance and the school setup. Both became major blunders because they were implemented too quickly, without enough study and analysis. The Liberals, too, may be weaker behind the scenes than would appear so on the surface. The recent family squabble in Vancouver must have left its mark. Now that the battle is on, will those party stalwarts who opposed Mr. Johnson at that time, rally to the banner, stand aloof or throw in their weight with one of the other parties? Time alone will produce the answer.

The CCF party has been very quiet; this may have been a deliberate part of its political strategy. On the other hand, as the official opposition in the Legislature, its showing in recent sessions has been quite ineffective. Undoubtedly this party is well organized in the local ridings—therein always lies its strength—but on the surface, at least, it would seem that the affairs of this party are at the lowest ebb in many years. It would seem to be standing by hoping to capitalize upon the fight which is developing between the two major parties. And it may.

SOCIAL CREDIT?

The progress of events may have a detrimental effect upon the fortunes of the Social Credit party. It is leaderless of the moment and surely would require time to become effectively organized and this may be true, but in the natural course of events, this party stood to gain by a postponement of the voting. It needed time, and time is one thing it is not going to have.

monwealth. No later than last Saturday, the Sun again urged "its idea" upon the powers-that-be in Ottawa.

This newspaper has chuckled at the fact that its big coast contemporary has suddenly seen merit in the idea, and indeed, taken it as its very own. We venture to suggest that the Sun obtained the idea from the editorial columns of The Courier. As our readers know, this newspaper has been advocating the "interchange" of Governors-General between the Commonwealth countries since the spring of 1944. The idea was originally advanced to the publisher of The Courier in London in February, 1944, by Lord Lascelles, Secretary to the King. The idea seemed a good one and this newspaper in March of that year advocated it and was probably the first newspaper in this country to make the suggestion. It has continued to advocate it and is gratified that it has succeeded in converting the powerful Vancouver paper to its way of thinking. But the Sun, we are sure, will pardon us if we smile very broadly when we read in its editorial that "The idea broached first by The Vancouver Sun a few weeks ago . . ." It's now just about eight years, not a few weeks, that The Courier first made the same suggestion.
